Mikhail Susov
Appointed First Vice President
of Mobile TeleSystems

Moscow, Russian Federation, - 28 February 2002, – The Board of Directors of OJSC Mobile TeleSystems (MTS) has appointed Mikhail Susov to the position of First Vice President of MTS.

This is the first time that the position of First Vice President has been introduced at MTS. Mikhail Susov will be responsible for commercial operations of the company in the Moscow market and in the regions. He will supervise business development, marketing, customer service and sales. The position of First Vice President will become effective as of today.

Commenting on the new appointment MTS President Mikhail Smirnov said: "The introduction of the post of First Vice-President responsible for commercial operations reflects managements aims at strengthening MTS's commitment to the area of customer relations."

"We are witnessing the beginning of a new phase in the development of the cellular market in Russia. Technology and price wars are ending, and they are being replaced by brand competition. Key factors of success in the future will be customer relations and a well-designed system of customer support", - Mikhail Susov stated.

Mikhail Susov has extensive experience in the telecommunications sector. He is a graduate of Moscow Communications Institute (qualified in radio communications, radio broadcasting and television). In 1992, Mikhail founded a group of companies specializing in design and construction of communications networks. Having been appointed in 1996 General Director of CJSC "Personal Communications" Mr. Susov headed the CDMA project in Russia. In December 2001 he was appointed as General Director of "Comstar".

In 2001 Mr. Susov was awarded Kommersant Publishing House Prize as the most prospective top manager in telecommunications. Mikhail Susov is 34 years old. He is married, has four children – three sons and a daughter. His hobby is "nature and everything with nature" – tourism, fishing and hunting.
